

UCSF TRACKING FORM FOR ACCESS WITH OR WITHOUT CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS RECORDS (in compliance with UC Electronic Communications Policy)

UCSF does not routinely monitor, inspect, or disclose electronic communications. However, it may do so under the following circumstances identified in the UC Electronic Communications Policy:

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Required by and consistent with law | <input type="checkbox"/> Violation of law or UC Policy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Compelling circumstances | <input type="checkbox"/> Time-dependent, critical operational need |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Individual no longer an employee or student | |

The UC Electronic Communications Policy requires that the Senior Vice Chancellor authorize in advance any access to electronic communications records without the consent of the holder of the records. In emergency circumstances the records may be sought first and the action post-authorized. As required by the UC Electronic Communications Policy, UCSF has implemented the following process for access without consent:

PROCESS
